Higher cantonal composition authority issues written court decision in respect to the amendments to the terms of the 2024 convertible bonds

Allschwil, Switzerland – June 28, 2024

Idorsia Ltd (SIX: IDIA) today announced that it has received the written decision from the higher cantonal composition authority (obere kantonale Nachlassbehörde) (the Court) in respect to the approval of the amendments to the terms of its outstanding convertible bonds originally maturing on July 17, 2024 (ISIN: CH0426820350) decided at the bondholder meeting held on May 6, 2024.

If no appeal is filed within the statutory period of 30 days, the amendments will be effective, and the company will transfer the consent fee of 8,000 shares per Bond. Considering the statutory court standstill period of one month, the end of the 30-day appeal period will be on August 29, 2024. If no appeal is made, the company expects to transfer the shares on September 5, 2024.

The cut-off date in respect of the consent fee is September 2, 2024, which means that bondholders holding the Bonds on – or who have purchased the Bonds by – September 2, 2024, will receive the consent fee. The ex-date in respect of the consent fee is September 3, 2024, which means that bondholders purchasing the Bonds on September 3, 2024, will not receive the consent fee.
